

The United Church of Bute

The Kirk Session

has unanimously decided, with regret but with a real sense that for us this is the right thing to do, that

The United Church of Bute
will not be opening for Public Sunday Worship for the moment.

We will continue to open for Private Prayer from 11.00 to 12 noon on Wednesdays.

We will still, of course, be offering our YouTube services on the United Church of Bute YouTube Channel, and we will now be supplementing these with other opportunities for worshipping and just keeping in touch, in ways that let people without internet access participate.
